DOCKET NO. 92-199-E - ORDER NO. 92-277
APRIL 16, 1992

IN RE: Application of Board of Public Works,)	ORDER
City of Gaffney for a Certificate of)	APPROVING
Public Convenience and Necessity for)	TEMPORARY
Extension of Electric Distribution)	SERVICE System.)

This matter is before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (the Commission) on the Applicant Board of Public Works, City of Gaffney's (Applicant's) request for permission to provide temporary electrical service to certain premises owned by Charles A. Copeland pending a ruling on its Application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity for extension of its Electric Distribution System. Applicant asserts that Mr. Copeland has requested that it immediately provide electrical service so that he can construct and renovate the building on his premises. Applicant further asserts that in order to serve Mr. Copeland it will need to run a service line of approximately one hundred feet in length from its existing distribution line located on property adjacent to that of Mr. Copeland's premises. Applicant states that the extension of its service line will not cross any road or highway or the facilities or lines of any other electric supplier, is located in unassigned territory, and is outside the municipal limits of the City.

Upon consideration of the allegations in its Application, the Commission grants Applicant's permission to provide electrical service to the premises owned by Mr. Copeland as described in the Application pending the Commission's decision on the Application for a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity.
